

I respectfully urge you to support the rights of cell phone owners to have portable numbers so that they may be allowed to retain their existing cellular phone numbers even when (and if) they should change cellular service providers. Thank you.